An Initiative of the New Jersey Alliance for Social, Emotional, and Character Development

Network, share, and learn with colleagues near you!

Many New Jersey Schools have already been recognized as New Jersey Schools of Character and/or National Schools of Character for their effective high-quality character education and social emotional learning programs. The New Jersey Alliance for Social Emotional and Character Development provides guidance and support through Networking Centers. The goals of the Networking Centers include promoting collaborative professional exchanges and support both virtually and in person. They also provide assistance with applications for New Jersey School of Character and Promising Practice recognition.
